

CLIMATE SHOCKS EXACERBATING HUMANITARIAN CRISIS, INSECURITY AND GENDER INEQUALITY

Voices from the Sahel and Afghanistan

TIME: 21 March, 9:00-10:30am EST WHERE: Zoom webinar

Register: https://unwomen.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_M3LDIW4VSAewpLrF3UuSfA

English-French translation will be provided.

As part of CSW66, this side event will highlight the impacts of climate shocks and environmental hazards on women and girls in humanitarian settings. The discussion will focus on the ways in which climate crisis, conflict and gender inequality are conflated to the detriment of the advancement of the SDGs and the gender equality agenda. Experiences of crisis-affected women will be shared to identify opportunities and priorities in the Sahel and Afghanistan.

Speakers:

- Ms. Grace Mbaiorga, Youth Expert on Disaster Risk Reduction, Nigeria (Moderator)
- Mr. Selwin Hart, Special Advisor to the Secretary-General on Climate Action and Assistant Secretary-General for the Climate Action Team
- Ms. Sima Sami Bahous, UN Women Executive Director
- Ms. Hamsatou Djibo Brazaki, Government of Niger
- H.E. Ambassador Tetsuya Kimura, Permanent Mission of Japan to the United Nations
- Ms. Negin Yari, Civil Society Activist and Executive Director, Afghans 4 Tomorrow (A4T)
- Ms. Zuhail Atmar, CEO/Founder, Mursal Charity Foundation, Women Leading Co
- Ms. Aissa Doumara Ngatansou, Association de Lutte contre les Violences Faites aux Femmes, Cameroon
- H.E. Ambassador Ulrike Butschek, Director for Human Rights and Minority issues at the Federal Ministry for European and International Affairs of Austria